explore

Damdama Lake

Distance: 2 km

One of the biggest lakes in Haryana spanning 3,000 acres. The lake, which was formed when a stone and earthen dam constructed by the British, was commissioned for rain water harvesting in 1947 and is held by an embankment. It is fed mainly by monsoon rain pouring into a trough at the base of the Aravalli Hills.

Hot Springs

Distance: 11 km

Sohna, a town nearby, is famous for its natural hot springs. The water is strongly sulfuric. According to legend, one of the Pandavas, Arjun, dug this well when he was thirsty.

Ancient Shiva Temple

Distance: 12 km

An ancient Shiva Temple is located in Sohna and was built by the Raja of Bharatpur / Gwalior. Every year on the occasion of Shiv Chaudas and Shiv Ratri, the residents of Sohna offer their special prayers to Lord Shiva and Maa Bhagwati for the newborn babies and newly married couples.

Surajkund Tourist Complex

Distance: 44 km

A delightful handloom and handicrafts fair is held here annually in February. Skilled artisans from all over the country display the rich crafts tradition of India in the typical setting of a rural Indian marketplace. Cultural programmes like folk dances, magic, acrobats and rural cuisines are also a part of this colourful fair.
