Sangria Classica

595

When the Romans conquered Spain around 200BC they brought with them their viticulture knowledge, and a love of pimen, their spiced wine. The Romans would spike their wine with an exotic array of herbs and spices such as cardamom, cinnamon, saffron, ginger, and honey. As the years went by, spices began to be omitted in many recipes and when the drink spread to America at the 1964 World's fair in New York City, the spice was unfortunately left behind in Europe. American sangria became a sweet version of the zesty original. Red wine, orange juice, fresh fruits and ginger ale.

A WORLD OF SPIRITS WHISKY

Whisky or Whiskey is made in many places around the globe in even more styles. Despite its diversity whisky should always be made from a grain, barley, malted barley, corn or rye and be aged for at least 3 years in oak barrels. There are thousands of varieties and we have endeavored to collect some of the finest from Scotland and America.

The main regions HIGHLAND, ISLAY, ISLAND and SPEYSIDE have been selected, so take your pick from our collection and enjoy your "SINGLE MALT DREAM".

SINGLE MALTS

HIGHLAND MALTS

The highland region is the largest Scotch whisky producing region. As a group these single malt whiskies are well rounded, robust, and dry in character with a hint of smokiness/peppiness. Those in coastal locations carry a hint of the sea, in the far north a light and spicy character can be found while those from the sheltered east and midlands have a more fruity character.

Glenmorangie 10 years old 545

The standard 10 Y.O has a subtle taste of candied fruit and orange peel and well-rounded peppiness. It remains Scotland's favorite malt whisky.

Clynelish 14 years old 595

A superb example of what can be produced even at younger age. The balance is sublime & the mouth feel is perfectly rounded. Zesty, mandarin, smoky with a spicy oak finish.

The Ardmore legacy 545

The Ardmore legacy celebrates the distillery's unique location on the border of highlands, Offering a lightly peated liquid with sweeter note and uplifting gesture

LOWLAND MALTS

The Lowlands produces gentle, light whiskies, often very dry and devoid of peat. Lowland whiskies are commonly referenced as feminine drams, 'the Lowland Ladies'.

Glenkinchie 12 years old 595

A rather sweet nose with honey, malt and ripe fruits hints. The mouth prolongs nicely the nose, honey and the fruits, some slightly acid notes are present as well as a touch of nuts at the end. The finish is relatively short.

ISLAY MALTS

The small island of Islay off the west coast of Scotland is home to seven distilleries, famous for its heavily peated malt whiskies which have a heavy, smoky and medicinal flavour.

Lagavulin 16 years old 945

Lagavulin has been described as an aristocrat of Islay. It has a powerful, peat-smoke aroma. It is described as being robustly fullbodied, well balanced, and smooth, with a slight sweetness on the palate.

Bowmore 12 years old 545

A perfectly balanced malt with smooth mellow taste between peat, fruit and honey notes. It comes from the oldest distillery in Scotland.

Caol Ila 545

Caol Ila is considered to be one of the lighter of the Islays, a medium bodied with a rounded flavor, pale in color with a greenish tinge. The malt has a peaty nose with distinct floral note.

VIVANTA BY TAJ

Aberlour

1795

From the carefully selected stocks of Duncan Taylor Scotch whisky Ltd, whisky magazine and a guild of connoisseurs, from Vivanta by Taj, have handpicked this exclusive bottle of whisky aficionados like you.

ISLAND MALTS

The general term for Scotch whiskies produced on the islands around the perimeter of the Scottish mainland, excluding Islay. Although people equate "Island" whiskies as being similar to the peat monsters of Islay, this is far from true. The whiskies produced on the islands are extremely different and have few similarities to point to.

Talisker

545

Single malt like no other. A powerful, peat-smoky nose introduces its deep, sweet taste, rich in barley-malt, with a slight salt edge. A huge, long and warming finish gives a wonderful Hebridean after glow.

SPEYSIDE

This area, which stretches the length of the River Spey, has the greatest concentration of distilleries in the world. This is "malt whisky country" and the whiskies are renowned for their elegance, style and complexity.

Balvenie 12 years old	675
Initially matured in bourbon casks, the Double Wood is transferred into sherry oak after 10 years. The traditional wood softens the character, and the sherry wood adds depth.
Cardhu 12 years old	595
Cardhu is a natural single cask strength malt whisky with a golden honey appearance. A soft and pleasing body with full-length nose and sweet honey notes. It has some lingering sweet smoke, dry aftertaste.
Cragganmore 12 years old	545
The Speyside representative of the Classic Malts series is rich and spicy, with a very satisfying complexity and a well-sherried backbone.
Glenlivet 12 years old	545
In 1824 George Smith established distillery in the remote and wild location of Glenlivet where it was perfect condition to craft the definitive single malt.
Glenlivet 18 years old	725
The Glenlivet 18 year old is the perfect expression of age and elegance, elegant, complex, and oak and fruit. An enticing bitter-sweet symphony.

INDIAN SINGLE MALT

Paul John KANYA 3100

Gently crafted by master brewer in the sunny shores of GOA, Kanya is An exotic unpeated single malt by John Paul. Symbolised by the holy Virgin, Kanya personifies femininity and is perhaps the most balanced Amongst all Indian single malt.

Paul John Edited 545

The ongoing semi-peated whisky from Indian distiller John Paul. It combines their fruity unpeated single malt whisky with some 20-25ppm peated spirit to give a sweet and spicy whisky balanced by an underlying earthy smoke.

Paul John Brilliance 525

An unpeated whisky from Paul John Distillers, released in early 2013 to much acclaim. It's made using barley from the foothills of the Himalayas and is distilled and matured in Goa, producing a fruity spirit with a creamy texture.
