THE GRAND PALACE COLLECTION

Jodhpur Lancers

1050

The Jodhpur Lancers were the horse cavalry regiment of His Highness Maharaja Umaid Singh of Jodhpur, who were notably celebrated for their victory in the Haifa war of 1918.

The origin of the cocktail dates back to the 1918, soldiers' time in Haifa, present-day Israel. According to legends, Cyril Rodney Harbord, a cavalry officer from the British Indian Army threw a party in celebration of Haifa war's Victory. An enterprising young officer from the Jodhpur Lancers who had lost an arm and was suffering from common cold, added ginger and chilies to his whiskey along with some brandy as the soldiers had a practice of carrying ginger with its medicinal powers to help warm up the body against cold and the local Mathania chilies to spice up the bland food. Intrigued by the creation the entire battalion ended up sipping the blend and it became an instant favorite. Victorious and proud, when the regiment was back to Jodhpur, they honored His Highness with this cocktail. Well received, His Highness named the cocktail, "Jodhpur Lancers" in tribute and memory of the brave soldiers who sacrificed their lives in the battle and in homage of those who survived.

The Jaipore Martini

(Signature Beverage of Taj Rambagh Palace)

1050

The Jaipore martini is patronized by the significance of the colour of the city and the pale pink colour of the drink. Rose petals also signify the beauty of the palace. Bombay Sapphire, Rose syrup, Martini rosso and creame de Fraise

Jasmine Sour Martini

(Signature Beverage of Taj Falaknuma Palace Hyderabad)

1050

Inspired by the classic sour cocktails which were prevalent in the early 21st century and pre prohibition era, the Jasmine sour Martini served at the Hookah bar – the Nizam's private lounge is the drink to sip away on as you go back to the era of royalty. In a setting against the vintage bidri sheesha pot and the grand burroughes and watts billiards table, the mixologist hand crafts this perfect concoction. Jasmine which was the Nizam's favourite flower and is ubiquitous in the palace courtyard and gardens is plucked fresh to make a home infused syrup which is the highlight of this elegant and refreshing beverage.

Udaipur Martini

(Signature Beverage of Taj Lake Palace)

1050

Signature drink is an important part of the bar. Being a signature heritage property, people from different nationalities come to stay with us and their mind set is to try something that is local and related to the culture of the place. Now Udaipur, "The land of warriors who peruse the Sun God". So keeping the mind set of the guest we have to create a royal drink depicts the culture, heritage, bravery and royalty of Mewar. The land of Udaipur is blessed by great and glorious warriors. One of the great warrior and king of Udaipur was Maharana Pratap, who is one of the ferocious and one of the greatest war heroes of Indian History, who never accepted any sort of treaty with the Mughals. It was said that the strong army of Maharana Pratap was very fond of Rum. Now Indian Rum is known all over the world due to its distinctive taste and nature. So we created the Udaipur Martini keeping in mind the history and bravery of the great king Maharana Pratap. Now to go with the theme the drink must be strong, potent and distinguished. So we make this martini by adding rum, gin and orange liqueur, that makes the drink strong and versatile, as no other mixer is added. Now to portray the sun god we garnish the drink by a slice of orange skin and to give a distinctive flavor to the drink a smoky touch is given to the drink by adding flamed orange zest.

Our standard measure of alcoholic beverages is 30 ml. All prices in Indian rupees, exclusive of taxes.
